

Stay Together, Play Together 2012

38th Annual Labor Day Safari & Campout

THIS YEAR: FIRST TIMERS PACKAGE

Designed for those who don't have a lot of experience, this "package" is for you. Two days with the same trail guides and the same jeeps. Then if you just can't get enough, chose another trail for Monday with other jeepers and new guides.

OVER NIGHT TRAIL BEEF BASIN

This trail has never been run before. It will climb to 8,250 feet and you will visit Indian ruins. Special things to consider: You will need to be self contained with food, water and fuel for this adventure. 335 miles total with 150 miles of pavement, (your vehicle must be able to sustain 55 mph on pavement.) Potluck dinner both nights – if you're interested, bring a side dish and an item for the Goulash pot – not mandatory.

TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS: most can be found in the 2012 Easter Jeep Safari paper or on our web site at RR4W.com. The trail schedule has been developed with family fun, scenery and short trail days in mind. Each day has a selection of moderate, medium and challenging trails but, hopefully not necessarily vehicle damaging trail schedules.

CONFIRMATIONS of trail reservations and departure times/places will be sent to your e-mail if you request it when completing your registration on line at www.rr4w.com. If you chose to register via US postal service, a confirmation will be sent to via USPO. You must still confirm your attendance at the registration area located at the campark to let us know you are here, pick up your meal tickets, vehicle flag and raffle ticket. Departure times/places will be available at the registration area.

2012 Campground Info

Last year's "Stay together, Play together" theme went over so well with everyone we're going to do it again by offering a family-focused event that includes not only wheeling together, but camping together as well as other activities. This year we'll be headquartered at the Moab Rim Campark, located at the top of the hill as you leave Moab going south (1900 South Highway 191). It has all the amenities, including water, showers, tables, grills, restrooms, grass and NO mosquitos! RV sites and Rustic cabins will be available at discounted prices for Safari participants. 1-888-599-MOAB (6622).

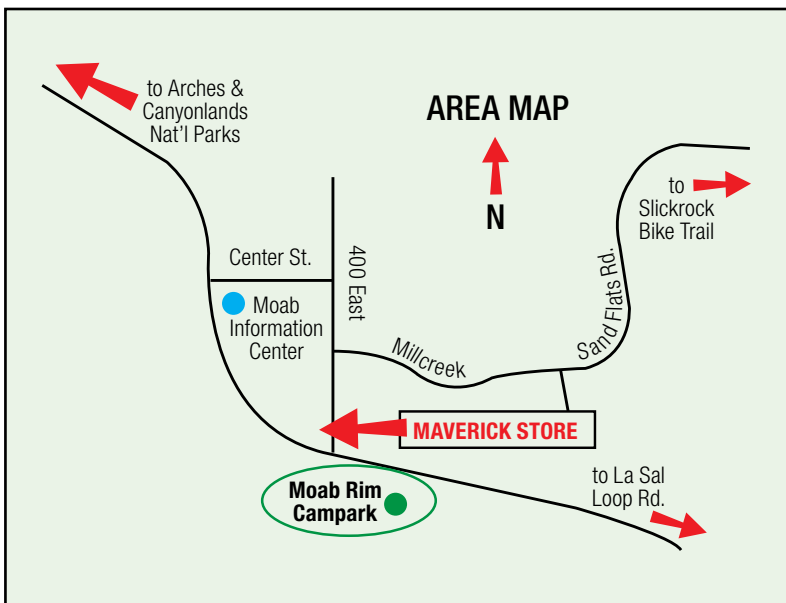

Spaces are limited so reserve your space NOW!

Camp areas are available Friday afternoon, August 31st through Monday afternoon, Sept 3rd.

Your fee of $150 includes a reserved tent or RV space with no hook-ups and 1 to 3 days of wheeling. We want you to enjoy the weekend but not break the bank, so here are a few more things we hope you will enjoy:

- Breakfast will be provided by Malt-O-Meal on Saturday morning at the campground for all participants.
- Dinner Sunday evening at the campground for all participants.
- Raffle – Sunday night after dinner. If you are on a campout trail your name will still be in the raffle.
